

Professional role of journalists in Latin America

Worlds of Journalism Study (WJS)

2789 surveys

Argentina, Brazil, Chile, Colombia, Ecuador, El Salvador and Mexico

Conclusions

Hybridization between "classic" and "neutral" roles (Western journalism) and "engaged" and "didactic" roles (citizen and country)

- + Commitment
- + Passivity
- + Civic - Market
- + Politicization

Introduction

Transversal character of journalism
Journalists self-perceptions
Contextual analysis (Latin America)

Comparative studies of journalistic cultures

"Address a range of questions that cannot be answered in the context of single-country studies" (Vollmer, 2008: 24)

Journalistic Culture of Latin America

Intermediate Journalistic Cultures (Oller y Barredo, 2013)

Professional roles of Journalists

Interventionism
Power distance
Market orientation
(Hanitzsch, 2007)

Results

